

Mirja Klippel feat. Vesselil

TEXT

With a gripping voice, a rich sound universe and a sense for songwriting that connects deeply personal experiences with images of wild Nordic nature, the Finnish songwriter and singer, Mirja Klippel, is a remarkable talent on the alternative folk music scene.

Already her debut EP 'Lift Your Lion' brought the Denmark-based musician a Danish Music Award as Songwriter of the Year. Since then, she has toured extensively in Europe and the North Atlantic and released additional two albums. Her latest album, 'Slow Coming Alive', received three Danish Music Awards Roots nominations in 2021.

Supported by the critically acclaimed guitarist Alex Jønsson, as well as the string trio Vesselil, she draws the audience into an ethereal and organic universe, where personal experiences open up psychological depths, and intimate spaces yield access to raw and wild inner landscapes.

Alex Jønsson: guitar, backing vocals
